

LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. Barry Phillips is visiting in St. Louis.

Mr. M. P. Cayce was a St. Louis visitor this week.

Pengreen Alfalfa Hay at the Farmington Mercantile Co.

Have you seen the New Spring Hats at the Enterprise?

Field Seeds of all kinds at the Farmington Mercantile Co.

The little daughter of Mrs. Vernon Taylor is seriously ill.

Garden seeds of all kinds at the Farmington Mercantile Co.

Three furnished rooms to rent. Apply to Miss Nettie Kudy.

"Cinn-Chin" sailors, the latest hat for school wear, at the Enterprise.

Miss Emma Lang is visiting her sister, Mrs. John T. Burks, at Charleston.

Latest styles in spring millinery. Where? At the Enterprise, of course.

Mr. and Mrs. Vest Burks are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper N. Burks.

FOR SALE—Buff Orpington Eggs, 50-cents setting; $3.00 per 100.—Mrs. Wm. Good.

Miss Lurene Tetley closed a very successful term of school at Libertyville last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Byington have returned home from a visit to their son, Ollie, in St. Louis.

Miss Ezelle Howlett of Charleston is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. Jennie Gruner.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Wm. Black on Tuesday, March 7th, at 2:30 o'clock p. m.

Mrs. W. E. Matkin attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. George Towl, at Potosi, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dietrich of Carthage are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. O'Sullivan.

When in need of Egg, Lump or Soft Coal, you should not fail to call up 162. Tetley-Klein Lumber Co.

F. J. Eastin, representing the Graham Paper Co., of St. Louis, was here Tuesday interviewing the trade.

Come in and see our spring line of Gingham, Kindergarten Cloth and Galateas.—Farmington Merc. Co.

The most elaborate children's play given in years will be at the Monarch March 10th. Watch for the notices.

Fifty Men's Suits—odds and ends—mostly in small sizes, at half price at the Farmington Mercantile Co.

Miss Dana Byington and nephew, Foster Byington, of DeSoto were visiting relatives here the first of the week.

For Sale, a Vose & Sons Upright Piano. Call up phone 92, or call at the residence of Mrs. T. D. Fisher.

You should bear in mind, when you need Egg, Lump or Soft Coal, that the Tetley-Klein Lumber Co. handle the best.

John T. Burks of Mississippi county is here buying mules. He says this is one of the best mule markets in the State.

Mrs. Merrill Pipkin will return today from a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Duhn and family, at Cape Girardeau.

Mrs. Edward Everaole, who had been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Jennie Forster, returned to her Potosi home the first of the week.

Miss Rose Cunningham, the popular saleswoman of the Farmington Mercantile Company, visited her sister in St. Louis the first of the week.

Be sure and see the Pied Piper and the tiny children of Fairyland at the Monarch March 10, under the auspices of the ladies of the Christian Church.

Mrs. M. P. Cayce entertained very informally with a bridge on Tuesday with Miss Routh, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Smith, as the honor guest.

Geo. Goeltz of Postmark, who was recently appointed postmaster at that place, was here in attendance upon the Democratic Committee meeting Wednesday.

R. A. Swink suffered a loss of several hundred dollars in broken plate glass by the dynamite explosion at Maplewood, an account of which is given on page 6.

Real winter weather is yet to come, and you should lay in an additional supply of coal before you actually need it in the stove. See Tetley-Klein Lumber Co.

In renewing his subscription, A. S. Anbuchon, of French Village, Mo., writes: "Feel more like renewing this time, for you have built it up to a pretty good standard."

All kinds of field seeds, such as Clover, Timothy, Red Top, Orchard Grass, Blue Grass, Alfalfa, Sweet Clover and White Clover at the Farmington Mercantile Co.

Bud Perry, who is now engaged in the Miami, Oklahoma, mineral fields, with O. M. Bilharz, was here this week looking for experienced American miners to take back with him.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Shaw of Bloomington, Ill., have been the guests of Mrs. Frank S. Weber. Mrs. Shaw left for home Thursday morning but Mrs. Shaw will remain longer.

Remember we are offering hundreds of dollars' worth of seasonable winter goods at almost your own price, as we must have the room for our spring lines that are now coming in.—Farmington Mercantile Co.

Wm. M. (Billy) Pipkin writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Pipkin, that he will be home for a brief visit the last of this week. His host of friends in Farmington will be delighted to see him again, after an absence of about two years.

Alderman Gus Schlessier is a candidate for re-election as Alderman from the First ward. Mr. Schlessier has made a conscientious and public spirited "city dad", and asks the voters for the indorsement of faithful service which a re-election would imply.

FARMERS—You will need seed Potatoes and seed Oats. We have just unloaded a car of very fine seed potatoes right from Minnesota, such as Red River, Ohio, Red Cut Rose and Triumphs. We also have both Northern and White and Black mixed oats.—Farmington Mercantile Co.

Wouldn't it be a good idea for the City Council to republish the chicken ordinance and penalties, so as to refresh the memories of those who desire to raise chickens in town and for the protection of the gardens of those who do not, as garden making will be on us in a short time?

Attorney Morton Jourdon, Robert Holmes and King Fisher of the Fisher-Semple Brokerage Company of St. Louis, were here last Friday and Saturday attending our Circuit Court, representing the plaintiff side of the interesting law suit over certain shares of capital stock of the Doe Run Lead Company.

Misses Willa and Anna Buck left Wednesday for Columbia, Mo., where Miss Anna will take an additional course of treatment in the same hospital where she was operated on some time ago. The length of their stay will depend on the success of the treatment. Miss Willa will remain with her sister.

Mrs. Sam Isenman was hostess at a delightful little evening party on Friday last for Miss Verna Routh of Virginia. Those present were: Messdames M. P. Cayce, Genevieve Logan, Frank Weber, Walter Morris, James Morris, John Graves, Will Lang, J. B. Smith, Will Harlan, Robert Forsyth, Miss Veran Routh and Miss Bess Nolan.

Martin L. Alexander and family have removed to Sikeston, Mo., where he has employment with a machine company. Mart's many friends wish him the best success in his new field.

Jerome Politte of Blackwell, one of our most substantial farmers and stockraisers, and a Democrat of the right sort, attended the Democratic Committee meeting here Wednesday.

Our genial friend, Dr. J. L. Eaton, made The Times an appreciated call while here Monday. He accompanied Miss West to the Hospital here to be operated on for abscess of the inner ear. The Doctor, who is President of the Board of Managers of the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, is one of St. Francois county's most enterprising citizens and foremost physicians.

Prof. W. L. Barrett of the Cape Girardeau Normal was in Farmington last Friday and spent the morning visiting our public schools and the seveal rooms in the High School. He was highly pleased with the thoroughness of the school in its various departments and spoke very highly of the teachers. The Times is indebted for a call by Prof. Barrett and County Superintendent Clyde Akers.

Miss Leta West was brought to the Hospital here Monday by Dr. J. L. Eaton of Bismarck, where she was operated on for abscess of the inner ear. Drs. Smith and Watkins were with Dr. Eaton in this important and delicate surgical operation.

Miss McDill arrived the first of the week to trim for the Misses Penby at the Enterprise. Miss McDill formerly worked with Mrs. Laakman, to whose patrons she gave uniform satisfaction.

N. A. Zimmerman of Desloge was a Farmington visitor this week and made The Times an appreciated call. Mr. Zimmerman is one of Desloge's most enterprising and prominent business men. He was one time Chairman of the Democratic Committee of this Congressional district, and continues to take the most lively interest in the party and to keep abreast of all public questions and affairs. We were glad to meet him and hope to get better acquainted with him.

Program for Baby Week

Wednesday, March 8, at 3 p. m., at the Monarch.

Solo—Sweetest' I'll feller, Mrs. Nelson. Lecture—Miss Hildegard Kneeland, B. A., Vassar.

Reading, selected—Little Miss Louise Lang.

Talk by a local physician. Baby Lung Motor Demonstration.

Reading—Master Joe Swink. Solo—Sweet Little Baby of Mine., Mrs. Nelson.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY GATHERING

On last Saturday afternoon from 2 till 4 o'clock Mrs. Firmin O'Dell entertained for her little daughter, Leanna, a few friends at an informal birthday party, it being the ninth anniversary of this charming little hostess. Mrs. O'Dell was ably assisted by her sister, Emma V. Hough, and their program of entertainment and suitable refreshment features could not have been more pleasing under any circumstances than it was to the little girls and boys that were fortunate enough to be present on this occasion.

Suitable decorations were provided, pink being the main color scheme, and was evidenced in every department of the entertainment. Interesting games and other suitable features of enjoyment for the children were engaged in and fully relished, in fact the spacious commodious rooms of the large Moothart residence were thrown open to the guests, giving freedom and liberty necessary to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent.

As the time allotted began to draw to a close those in charge served a most inviting luncheon, consisting of ice cream, cake, home-made candies, etc.

After the joyous little group had spent most pleasantly every moment of their time, they very graciously thanked the good hostess, wishing Leanna many more pleasant anniversaries, bade her an affectionate good-bye and returned to their various homes, with pleasant memories of the time spent.

Many useful and pretty presents were presented to Leanna for which she very cordially thanked each and every giver and wanting them to understand that she prized them all most highly.

Those present were, Mary, Lucille and Corine Williams, Frances Mitchell, Dorothy Robinson, Helen Elayer, Mamie and Thelma Frey, Helen Hough, Emily Kate McKinney, Barbara Caroline Tullock, Elizabeth Gould, Almie Coffman, Virginia and Maxine Byington, Jimmie Watson, Paul Coffman and Firmin Hough.

Baby Sunday

The beginning of Baby Week will be observed at all the churches Sunday, March 6th. Special programs will be given in the Sunday schools. Efforts to secure new names for the "Cradle Roll" will be made.

CELEBRATE THEIR 32d MARRIAGE ANNIVERSARY

Last Monday, February 28th, was the thirty-second anniversary of the marriage of Judge and Mrs. Jeff D. Mitchell, and they were honored on the occasion with a family dinner at the home of his son-in-law, Taylor Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swink and their baby and other members of the Judge's family were present, and father and mother were made to feel that it is good to have loving children and grand children around them. The Times congratulates them and wishes them many happy and joyous returns of the day.

LITERARY SOCIETY MEETING POSTPONED

Owing to other entertainments tonight (Friday) and the inability of several members to serve, the fortnightly meeting of the Farmington Literary Society which was to be held tonight has been postponed until next Friday, March 10th. A specially good program is being arranged, which it is hoped may be published in this paper next week.

FARMS WANTED

I have a buyer for a 40-acre well improved farm, located on a rock road.

I also have a buyer for 160-acre farm, located within five miles of Farmington. Address, WM. O'SULLIVAN, Phone 134, Farmington, Mo.

The Times management will greatly appreciate it if you will give us any news item you may have in mind. Or, if you will telephone it to this office it will be thankfully received. Call 59.

Fairyland

The "Pretend-Land," that even the grown-up love, will make you forget care. At the Monarch, March 10.

Church Notices

Christian Science

Subject of lesson sermon: "Man." Golden text: III John 1:11. Services are held each Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the new Tetley building in the halls of the Schubert School of Music.

Christian Church

Services will be held next Lord's day as follows: Bible school at 9:55 a. m. May we not have a full attendance next Lord's day.

Preaching and communion service at 11 a. m. Morning subject, "The High and Lofty One," Isa. 57:15.

Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Preaching at 7:30 p. m. A welcome to all.

J. M. Bailey, Minister.

The Presbyterian Church

Warner H. DuBoise, Pastor. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Morning worship, 11 o'clock. Christian Endeavor, 6:45 p. m. Evening worship, 7:30 p. m. We cordially invite you to worship with us.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church

H. Hallerberg, Pastor. Sunday Quinquagesima. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. German preaching service at 10:30 a. m.

No service in the evening. The Berea Bible class meets Wednesday of next week at 7:30 p. m. Subject of lesson: David and Jonathan.

FLAT RIVER

Miss Audrey Skaggs spent a few days in St. Louis this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lane of Grand Rapids, Mich., are staying at the Hotel Parkin during their canvas of Flat River and vicinity for a picture house of Chicago, which they and crew of three represent.

Miss Lydia Palmer of Desloge visited in Flat River Sunday and Monday of this week.

Mr. W. A. Gillam of Ironton, Mo., is spending a few days in Flat River. Mr. Gillam is an expert at tuning, revoicing and repairing any and all makes of pianos.

Mr. J. W. Leach, proprietor of the White Kitchen restaurant, left Thursday afternoon for St. Louis for a short business trip.

W. D. Fahland sold his property on Bottom Row and is now disposing of his household goods. He will move to Hazel Green, Wis., where he has the promise of employment.

Oscar Phillips of Graham, Va., visited the past few days with his brother, J. W. Phillips. Oscar is returning from the Hawaiian Islands, where he spent a year or two in the service of Uncle Sam.

Mr. G. Hirsch returned to Flat River Friday from St. Louis, where he spent the last week on business.

Mr. Giessing, proprietor of the theatre, had the piano tuned and revoiced this week. Mr. Gillam doing the work.

Hotels and boarding houses of Flat River have been doing capacity business for the past month and still continue to do so.

CORRESPONDENTS WANTED

This paper wants a good, live, energetic correspondent from each school district in St. Francois county, to send in good local news from each community each week. We will be glad to pay well for service rendered. For further information, call on or address

A. W. BRADSHAW, Editor The Farmington Times.

No wonder Billy Sunday is so rampantly pro-alley—he's just heard that Berlin is always on a spree.

In time of peace prepare for war, and the chances are you'll not get it.

Funny none of those "accidental" fires ever occur in the brewery.

W. A. GILLAM

Expert

PIANO TUNER,

Voicing and Repairing

Hotel Parkin

Flat River, Missouri

Phone 506

THE Germans, even centuries ago, were famous all over Europe for their ability as bread and pastry makers. They are said to have first invented the doughnut, now popular throughout the entire world.

Our Doughnuts

are famous throughout this entire community. Our customers tell us they are "like those mother used to make," and that is the best recommendation a doughnut or any other article of pastry can have.

Quality and cleanliness are the twin mottos of this bakery at all times.

McKINNEY'S

PRIMROSE

Rev. R. G. Ramsey of Flat River filled his appointment at the T. M. B. Church Saturday and Sunday. Morris Jones transacted business in Bonne Terre Friday.

Mrs. Harvey spent last week in Bonne Terre visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Pettis of Bonne Terre spent Saturday and Sunday here with friends and relatives.

Those who attended church at the T. M. B. Church from Prospect Sunday were: Misses Myrtle and Lulu Cole, Clara Whaley; Messrs. Louis Holdman, Roy Derrickson, Ervin and Marvin Whaley.

Mrs. Pettis was the guest of friends and relatives in Bonne Terre the latter part of last week.

Wm. Snyder made a trip to Bonne Terre Saturday.

Miss Grady Wheelon of near Valles Mines attended services at the T. M. B. Church Sunday.

Arvie Rane, who has employment at Crystal City, is at home on a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rane.

Finton Rawson was the guest of his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rawson, Saturday night.

Several from here attended the box supper at the Prospect school house last Tuesday night.

Miss Annie Moon was a guest at the home of Wm. Rawson Monday.

Less Cash was a guest at the home of his uncle, John Cash, of near Big River, Saturday.

Miss Esther Rawson was a guest at the home of John Pettis Monday.

Thomas Douglas and Miss Ella Iahn of Desloge were united in marriage at the home of the former's uncle, Jacob Matthey, Sunday morning. Rev. R. G. Ramsey of Flat River officiating. Mr. Douglas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Douglas, deceased. Miss Iahn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Iahn of Desloge. Those present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Iahn, Mrs. Janey Taylor, Miss Stella Douglas, Robert Kerkoskie, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Matthey and Rev. R. G. Ramsey.

Several from Big River attended church at the T. M. B. Church Sunday.

SUGAR GROVE

Had a good attendance, as usual, at Sunday school last Sunday.

Rev. Mitchell wasn't there, but Mr. Gunette said he was to see him last week on a chicken deal and said he would come next Sunday, the 5th.

Everybody come to Sunday school. We have our old faithful superintendent, Mr. John Pinkston, back. We appreciate his service very much.

Mr. Andrew Young is getting enthusiastic over the red hogs. He has a nice lot of thoroughbred Durocs. He is building a fine 40-foot hog house this week.

Mr. Charley Myers and family attended Sunday school at Sugar Grove Sunday.

The Taylor school will close the 1st of March.

Mr. Linn Horton was late for Sunday school Sunday. We will have to mark him up tardy.

Mr. John Williams will have to be careful this week or this weather will get some more of his goats.

There is a good deal of sickness in Sugar Grove neighborhood.

Mrs. John Gossett was sick last week.

Mr. Peter Zolman is on the sick list this week.

Harry Noltkemper and wife have la grippe.

There was a singing at Mr. John Haynes. We had a nice time.

Miss Nell Zolman has recovered her good health and returned to her position in Flat River.

Mr. O'Bannon lost his dog last Monday at Sugar Grove. He took a different route home and the dog missed him. We hope he has found him.

The school children can enjoy themselves snow-balling this week.

THE SECOND HAND STORE

Carries a full line of furniture and stoves, which we will sell for 1/4 to 1/3 the price of new. We do furniture and stove repairing, and upholstering of all kinds. We also carry a line of good composition Roofing, Barn and Roof Paint; Roof Cement for patching all kinds of roofs.

We solicit your patronage, if.

S. P. COUNTS, Manager.

A Wonderful Remedy That Saves Your Stock

Your sheep, hogs, cattle, horses and mules are subject to deadly attacks of worms. These ravenous pests multiply by the millions, starve your stock, keep them poor, weak, and out of condition.

SAL-VET

The Great Worm Destroyer and Conditioner.

is a medicated stock salt that will rid every animal on your place of worms quickly and keep them worm free and healthy. No pay if it fails. No dosing, no drenching. Just put it where all your stock can run to it freely. They will doctor themselves, thrive faster, and put on money-making flesh. Sal-Vet is not expensive. We carry it in six sizes from 75c up. Come in and get a package to try. You will be pleased with the results. We guarantee it.

For Sale by

E. M. LAAKMAN, Druggist